Hall, auditorium

3.18 Hall, auditorium

Reference:

Greek ἀκροατήριον (akroatērion) ACT 25:23

Description and usage:

The auditorium was a relatively large building normally used for legal hearings, though possibly also employed for more general purposes.

Translation:

In a number of languages “auditorium” may be rendered “large hall,” “place where many people could gather together,” or “building where many people could sit to listen.”
